VII. Administrator Reports and Board Vision & Goals Updates

LGS - First day of summer school today (6/20) 37 students. 3 weeks long. Library is open during summer school to do STEM activities and check out books.

WES - Summer school started the day after Memorial Day and they will finish 6/29.

NMS - Summer school ends on 6/23. Some 8th graders needed to finish completing the Constitution so they could move onto high school. Ordered intercom system and social studies books.

Athletics - turf tank has been tested on several athletic fields and it is working out well.

RHS - All positions have been filled and they are excited about that. Wesley Jackson was named offensive MVP in the All State Football Conference. Summer school is winding down and getting things set for next school year.

Superintendent - Getting ready to close out the fiscal year and working on payroll changes.

Getting employment paperwork and onboarding started for new employees. Extra maintenance crews are working on buildings to get them ready for next school year.

Mike Shimer - City has been busy working on housing and mentioned there is interest in our lots for sale and thinks we will have several bidders. city would like for our lots we are selling to have things move quickly and not let it sit empty with nothing happening.
