VII. Closed Session

VIII. Administrator Reports and Board Vision & Goals Updates

Klier: Construction update - parking lot on Highland is in process. Looking to resurface in June it will be tied into RHS parking.

Chiller getting replaced at RHS, still have a few hook-up issues.

Introduced Tahnee working at Central Office.

Burge: WES bids due May 1st. Asked if the board would like to add an extension to bids because a few construction companies have asked for it. The board approved to push the extension to May 8.

WES: Preschool screenings are happening for next school year. The last school day for kindergarten and preschool will be May 20. This date meets all requirements for those two programs. Kindergarten screenings will start after that. May 16 Fun Day for students.

LGS: Testing went great. 5th grade is finishing up the science portion. The LGS track meet will be Monday, April 28. Thanked Mr. Poettker and his students for helping with things around the school.

NMS: 8th grade recognition will be May 20. Spring concert May 1. Musical May 2 and 3. Attendance has been strong this past quarter. Impressed with staff and students with state testing at their school

RHS: Brain Games and ACES competing at State. Wanted to thank Mrs. Oxford for the countless hours she put in for state testing. Very impressed with all the teachers helping. Spring sports under way. Two students placed in Indoor Track.

Rains: Had an interesting opportunity with students from Jamaica who were able to observe in classrooms of students on the spectrum.
