VIII. Administrator Reports and Board Vision & Goals Updates

Klier: parking lot is still in process between RHS and Special Services. But should finish up after school lets out. Chiller at RHS is in place and functional. The roof at WES has been patched and the seal that the roofing company should be under warranty and waiting for them update us on that.

LGS: class picnics will be taking place this week. Two teachers retiring this year - Slaughter and Treadway.

WES: Damage done to sky lights with the hail storm from previous week. Track and Field Day with K-2 and a Fun Day for the students finishing out the year. Tomorrow (5/20) last day for preschool and kindergarten. Screenings for kindergarten will take place for those teachers to finish out the year for them.

NMS: Beals thanks Belt and Music for the attendance incentive program for students. 5/20 will be 8th grade recognition. Sectional track meet on Saturday had some rough conditions with weather. Looking forward to those that went on to State. Belt commented on fourth quarter attendance being remarkable with students attending.

RHS: Spring sports in session and moving into post season. Girls track is being represented in multiple events. Lots of scholarships were given out at Seniors Night. 87 graduates walked the stage. One employee retiring, Janelle.

Rains: compliment on graduation that it was all very nice
